

Steven R. Gray

Member

Mr. Gray joined the firm in 1984 and heads the firm's environmental section. He has appeared in several reported decisions.

PRIOR PUBLIC SERVICE:

* Deputy Attorney General for nine years, representing the Department of Environmental Protection and the New Jersey Meadowlands Commission in Federal and State trial and appellate courts.

* Counsel to the Environmental Committees of the New Jersey Legislature.

AREAS OF ENVIRONMENTAL PRACTICE AND RELATED REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS:

* Brownfields Redevelopment in urban areas is one principal area of his practice, which includes the procurement of (a) government sponsored grants, loans, and tax incentives; (b) permits and compensation for wetlands impacts and natural resources damages; and (c) insurance as a means of limiting developer liability.

* As Counsel for major New York area sports team, obtained requisite permits/approvals for construction of new 80,000 seat stadium and related retail development.

* Appointed Special Environmental Counsel to Trustee in Bankruptcy proceeding; also represented creditors with claims as subsequent owners of property contaminated by the debtor.

* Successfully prosecuted environmental insurance coverage claims on behalf of landowners, subsequently appointed as defense counsel by carrier.

* Counseled both redevelopment agencies and private sector clients in condemnation proceeding involving contaminated properties.

* Expeditiously resolved claims for cleanup and natural resource damage so that redeveloper could begin construction while responsible party completed required remediation.

* Represented major companies and "innocent purchaser" of property involved in Superfund proceedings with United States.
