

Mark J. McPherson

Member

Mr. McPherson's areas of expertise include insurance law, municipal finance, and complex commercial litigation. He has represented various clients, including small businesses, and Fortune 500 companies, in complex, multi-site, multi-state insurance coverage actions. In addition, Mr. McPherson has represented clients in insurance and surety matters involving General Liability, Environmental Impairment, Health Benefits, Directors' & Officers', Employment Practices Liability, Owners' and Contractors' Protection policies, and dealing with issues such as duty to defend, pollution exclusions, trigger of coverage, additional insureds, contractual indemnity obligations, self-insured retentions, allocation of loss and "other insurance" disputes.

Mr. McPherson's municipal finance practice in taxable and tax-exempt issues, has included representing municipal entities, counties, independent authorities, and State agencies, and has encompassed representation as Bond Counsel, Underwriter's Counsel, Trustee's Counsel, General Counsel (to the Issuer) and Counsel to the Financial Advisor.

Mr. McPherson's practice also includes complex commercial real estate transactions and financings, which have involved the negotiation and review of ground leases, and his work in representing governmental entities has involved the formation and organization of non-profit entities, including those in the health care field.
