

Joshua J. VandenHengel

Associate

Mr. VandenHengel is an associate at Waters, McPherson, McNeill. He joined the firm in 2008 following judicial clerkships with the Honorable John J. Harper, J.S.C. (Ret.) and the Honorable John B. Dangler, J.S.C. His law practice focuses on real estate development, land use, and environmental law.

While pursuing his law degree, Mr. VandenHengel clerked for the General Counsel of Transit Realty Associates, the designated representative of the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority (MBTA) in all of its real estate transactions. He also drafted and presented a proposal before the City of Newton Economic Development Commission for the transit oriented redevelopment of MBTA-owned land in Riverside, Massachusetts servicing Amtrak, subway and bus lines.

Contact Info

Phone: (201) 319-5744

Fax: (201) 863-2866

E: jvandenengel@lawwmm.com

Practice Areas

Environmental
Land Use Approvals

Education

University of Maryland, College
Park (B.A., 2001)

Boston College Law School
(J.D., 2007)

Bar Admissions

State of New Jersey (2007)

State of New York (2008)

United States District Court for the District of New Jersey (2007)

United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (2008)

Memberships

American Bar Association

New Jersey Bar Association

New York Bar Association

Hudson County Bar Association

300 Lighting Way
7th Floor
Secaucus, NJ 07096
(201) 863-4400
www.lawwmm.com